Here is the Get Informed Page. Here, I will provide links, video and rough facts regarding major U.S and worldwide school disasters.

~Bath School Disaster (1927)

The Bath school disaster in 1927 is still the deadliest school attack in United States history. Killing at least 50 children when a man named Andrew P. Kehoe detonated pre-positioned bombs from inside the school. He also planted explosives in his automobile, killing himself. The entire North wing of the structure (As seen in the above photo) was completely destroyed. One teacher recalls from the explosion: "It seemed as though the floor went up several feet," she said. "After the first shock I thought for a moment I was blind.

When it came the air seemed to be full of children and flying desks and books. Children were tossed high in the air; some were catapulted out of the building." The aftermath resulted in widespread panic and chaos. Throbs of parents and Good Samaritans stormed the wreckage to search for bodies. In all, a total of 45 people (Most being 2nd to 6th grade students.) A lesson to be learned here simply is that even non-al qeida members can carry out deadly attacks on the most vulnerable people imaginable. Which is why we must not only prepare for foreign attackers, but for those who nobody would expect.

~Columbine High school Massacre (1999)

Columbine took place in 1999 when two students, Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold opened fire on the students and staff at Columbine High school. Before turning the guns on themselves, they killed 13 students. Injuring nearly twice that. Many experts point to bullying as the primary motive for the assault, other blame lack of social interaction.

Regardless, it didn't have to happen. A positive thing that came out of this is the increase in Metal detectors and other security methods. However, that is still not enough and the next disaster proved that very well.

~Besian Middle School (2005) (Russia)

While Besian did not take place in the United states, that does not mean it isn't significant. In fact. THIS is probably the worst thing i've ever seen. I get chills just typing about it so let's get this over with:

Besian Middle School September 1st 2004.

32 armed men storm the building and take over 1,000 students hostage. After 2 days of failed negotiations and 100+ killed, Russian special forces raid the building and kill the terrorists. While I'd like to say that's everything, it isn't. An exclusive video I have from CNN's Glenn Beck E-Mail thing that reveals the extent of the suffering and carnage. WARNING!: Contains Real-time footage of Human suffering, torture, and death, as well as other suggestible material some may not find suitable. Viewer discretion is STRONGLY advised. I recommend for you parents that you DO watch it. So Click Here to watch. Or itf that's a little too much, then peek at This One.

~Virginia Tech Massacre (2007)

The most recent School Massacre in the United States. Virginia Tech took place merely five months ago in Blacks Burg Virginia when Seung-Hui Cho opened fire in Norris and West Amber Johnston buildings. In all, 33 people including Cho were killed in the incident. One of the witnesses recalls from the event to BBC

News: "They heard gunshots in the hallway. At least three people in the classroom, including Zach Petkewicz, barricaded the door using a table. At one point, Macko said, the shooter attempted to open the classroom door and then shot twice into the room; one shot hit a podium and the other went out the window. The shooter reloaded and fired into the door, but the bullet did not penetrate into the room. There were "many, many shots" fired that day. Before the shooting, Cho sent disturbing pictures and video to NBC news. One video contained an eerie message: Do you know what it feels to be spit on your face and to have trash shoved down your throat? Do you know what it feels like to dig your own grave? "Do you know what it feels like to have your throat slashed from ear to ear? Do you know what it feels like to be torched alive? Do you know what it feels like to be humiliated and be impaled upon on a cross? And left to bleed to death for your amusement? You have never felt a single ounce of pain your whole life. Did you want to inject as much misery in our lives as you can just because you can?...I didn't have to do this. I could have left. I could have fled. But no, I will no longer run. It's not for me. For my children, for my brothers and sisters that you [fucked], I did it for them... When the time came, I did it. I had to...You had a hundred billion chances and ways to have avoided today, but you decided to spill my blood. You forced me into a corner and gave me only one option. The decision was yours. Now you have blood on your hands that will never wash off " This was a very solemn moment in our history and hopefully, now you, I and the rest of the nation can finally wake up and realize, it's only a matter of time before something far worse than all of the above occurs. It doesn't have to happen, and it won't if you GET PREPARED.
